Article 11

APPOINTMENTS AND ASSIGNMENTS

- 11.1 Lecturers, Senior Lecturers, and Principal Lecturers are defined as benefits-eligible teaching faculty. The appointments are made for the academic year. The Department Chair will assign courses and duties to Lecturer Faculty following the requirements in Article 12: Workload

Activities of Lecturer Faculty, subject to the approval of the Dean. Lecturers, Senior Lecturers, and Principal Lecturers are under no research or creative scholarship expectations, and are not eligible for tenure.

- 11.2 Lecturer Faculty will be appointed by the Dean of the College. All appointments shall be offered by the Dean in writing and accepted in writing by the Lecturer. The Lecturer appointment letter shall specify that the appointment is a term contract subject to renewal or non-renewal and contingent on valid work authorization and successful background check. It shall include:
- a) the effective date of the appointment or reappointment;
 - b) the percent time of the appointment or reappointment;
 - c) the rank of the appointment or reappointment;
 - d) salary for the first year of the appointment period (including annual salary and that the Lecturer Faculty member will be paid on a bi-weekly basis.
 - e) the Teaching and Service expectations (as outlined in Article 12: Workload Activities of Lecturer Faculty);
 - f) recognition that the position is subject to USNH and UNH policies and is governed by the terms and conditions of this Collective Bargaining Agreement;
 - g) a statement indicating that UNH Lecturers United – AAUP will contact the Lecturer Faculty; and
 - h) whether or not the appointment is a joint appointment, and if a joint appointment, specify the home department and refer to Provost Office policy on "Joint Non-Tenure-Track Faculty Appointments".
- 11.3 Reappointment letters for Lecturers shall be delivered by March 1 of the final appointment year for Lecturers in their first or second year; and by September 30 of the final appointment year for Lecturers who are in their third year or thereafter. These dates are consistent with Article 15: Termination of Employment.
- 11.4 Lecturer Faculty will be appointed at one of three ranks: Lecturer, Senior Lecturer, and Principal Lecturer. Normally, for a person with no prior full-time experience at an institution of higher education, an initial appointment will be as Lecturer. However, at the discretion of the Dean, exceptions to rank at hire and/or term of appointment may be made. Lecturer Faculty appointments or reappointments at any rank are at the discretion of the Dean on the basis of curricular need, sufficiency of financial resources, and satisfactory performance as defined by Article 13: Performance Reviews and Promotion.
- 11.4.1 Those hired by the University at the rank of Senior or Principal Lecturer will normally be given three to five-year appointments. Reappointments or appointments following promotion to Senior Lecturer will normally be three to five-year appointments. Reappointments or appointments following promotion to Principal Lecturer will normally be five-year appointments.
- 11.4.2 Those initially hired by the University at the rank of Lecturer will normally be given two year appointments. However, for those Lecturers whose hire begins in the spring semester, the initial appointment will be for one and one-half years. The first reappointment at the Lecturer rank will be for two years. Subsequently, appointments will normally be for three-years.

- 11.4.3 Excluding Temporary Appointments as defined in 11.4.4, when a Lecturer faculty receives a reappointment offer for a term of year less than normally offered – as defined in 11.4.1 and 11.4.2, above – the Administration will provide notice to UNHLU and a brief rationale for the shorter term.
- 11.4.4 Temporary Appointments: Shorter duration appointments than those set forth above may be made to address temporary situations such as vacancies caused by leaves or searches. These appointments may be renewable or non-renewable at the discretion of the Dean. The Administration will provide notice to UNHLU and a rationale for the shorter term and renewal status. If the appointment is non-renewable, the appointment letter shall, in addition to the requirements of 11.2, include the following statement: “This is a temporary position that is not renewable.” Inclusion of this statement shall be construed as notice of termination.
- 11.4.3.1 Hire into a temporary appointment following a search does not preclude future hire into a normal Lecturer Faculty position.
- 11.5 Lecturers promoted during an appointment will have their promotions and associated salary increases effective at the start of the next academic year. In the event a Lecturer Faculty is promoted in the terminal year of their current appointment and have already received a reappointment for the next academic year, the reappointment will be reviewed by the Dean to ensure it meets the normal appointment term as described in this Article.
- 11.6 Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, non-renewal following the end of an appointment period may occur for any reason that is not based upon illegal discrimination or is otherwise in violation of any term of this Agreement.

Article 12

WORKLOAD ACTIVITIES OF LECTURER FACULTY

- 12.1 Lecturer faculty workloads will contain a combination of Teaching and Service. There shall be no requirement of scholarly work for Lecturer Faculty.² Lecturer Faculty appointments may be full-time or part-time at the discretion of the Dean consistent with curricular needs and consistent with this Collective Bargaining Agreement.
- 12.1.1 A 1.0 FTE workload is eight (8) "units" of Teaching and Service. Of those “units”, either one (1) or two (2) will be assigned to Service. The definition of a "unit" is associated with the time, energy, and actions it takes to teach one standard 3- or 4-credit course.³

² While there is no requirement for scholarly work for Lecturer Faculty, they may engage in scholarship in accord with section 11 of Article 7: Lecturer Faculty Rights and Responsibilities.

³ According to UNH Faculty Workload Policy, "a course, as referenced above, is one that meets for an entire semester, carries three or four credits, is the responsibility of a single instructor, and enrolls a minimum number of students as determined by course level and College policy. Multiple sections that meet at the same time and are taught by the same instructor count as one course." UNH Faculty Workload Policy, Dean's Council (2013)

- 12.1.2 A 0.88 workload equates to a total of seven (7) "units" of Teaching and Service. Of those units, either one (1) or two (2) will be assigned to Service. Alternatively, at the discretion of the Dean, a part-time workload may be six (6) "units" of Teaching and Service, which equates to 0.75 FTE. Of those units, one (1) will be assigned to Service.
- 12.1.3 Current Lecturer Faculty, as of the date of ratification, who are grandfathered at less than 0.75 FTE shall retain their FTE status, unless changed by mutual agreement.
- 12.2 The Department Chair assigns courses and duties to Lecturer Faculty, with approval from the Dean. Workload assignments must be fair and equitable, and will take into consideration the interests of the Lecturer Faculty member.
- 12.3 Faculty members can be most effective only if there is reasonable flexibility in determining the manner in which they carry out their responsibilities. In an effort to produce fair, balanced, and equitable workload assignments for Lecturer Faculty, workloads must be consistent with established policies and practices for workload assignment for faculty within each department and College. Within a department or College, discussion of policies and practices for faculty workload assignments must include Lecturer Faculty as fully participating members.
- 12.3.1 Not later than September 1, 2020 UNH and UNHLU will convene to collaborate to 1) review existing College workload guidelines, and 2) identify where revisions may be needed.
- 12.4 Any change in FTE status is by mutual agreement if intended to occur during an appointment period. If the change is to commence at the beginning of a new appointment period, the FTE status will be the prerogative of the Dean and must be reflected in the reappointment letter, along with the reason(s) for the change.
- 12.5 Nothing in this article prohibits departments from granting or continuing course releases to Lecturer Faculty so long as they are consistent with policies and/or practices for faculty within a department.
- 12.6 The two categories of workload activities are Teaching and Service.
- 12.6.1 Teaching activities are those activities directly related to the administration of a course. Examples include: preparation, selection, and delivery of course materials; feedback and assessments; and support of student needs and accommodations associated with the course.
- 12.6.2 Service activities are comprised of standard professional activities⁴ and any additional activities assigned or approved by the Chair with approval of the Dean and completed in support of students, colleagues, the department, College,

University, and the professions and disciplines; public service, outreach, and engagement; accreditation activities; and professional development.

12.7 General Standards for Teaching Assignments

12.7.1 Discrete sections of the same course that meet at distinct times in a given semester are to each be considered one course.

12.7.2 Courses that have a combination of lecture and laboratory or workshop components shall be counted as one or more Teaching "units", based on a case-by-case determination with input from the assigned Lecturer Faculty member. For example, one additional (1) "unit" of Teaching shall be credited to the Lecturer's workload if, in the judgment of the Chair, the management and supervision of laboratory or workshop components and their corresponding assistants requires similar time and energy as it does to teach one standard course.

12.7.3 In accordance with the Discovery Committee of the Faculty Senate, courses with the following designations and attributes, to be counted as no more than one course shall have the following enrollment maxima:

12.7.3.1 Discovery 444 courses: 25 students

12.7.3.2 Discovery 440H courses: 20 students

12.7.3.3 Inquiry Attribute: 35 students, excepting approved large inquiry attribute courses with multiple lab sections in which each section shall be capped at 35 students.

12.7.3.4 Writing Intensive: 30 Students, unless otherwise supported by Graduate Teaching Assistants, Instructional Assistants, or a combination of both. Lecturers will be offered support consistent with that provided tenured and tenure-track faculty when section size of an assigned WI course exceeds 30 students. The goal of that extra support is to keep the overall student/teacher ratio for writing intensive courses to 30 or lower.

12.7.3.5 The above course categories and maxima are subject to revisions recommended by the Faculty Senate and approved by the Provost. Any such revisions will automatically govern all faculty assignments.

12.8 Lecturer Faculty shall have the right to request that the Dean reconsider their workload assignments and FTE status in accordance with the language in Article 14: Grievances Procedure. Should the outcome of the reconsideration result in a dispute that elevates to a formal grievance, the grievance shall move immediately to Step One as prescribed in Article 14: Grievance Procedure.

12.9 Overload

- 12.9.1 Lecturer Faculty at less than 1.0 FTE may inform the Dean or Dean's designee prior to the start of the semester if they would like to take on an overload course for which the College would otherwise seek to recruit a new adjunct faculty member. If the Dean, on advice of the Chair, deems the Lecturer Faculty member at least as qualified as other active or potential candidates, the overload will be assigned to the Lecturer. If an overload is given to a less than 1.0 FTE Lecturer for more than two semesters, and the resulting workload would be 1.0 FTE equivalent, then the Lecturer's FTE shall be reassigned at 1.0 FTE.
- 12.9.2 Lecturers may work more than 1.0 FTE with the agreement of the Lecturer Faculty member.
- 12.9.3 Lecturers may be assigned more than (1) overload in an academic year provided the Lecturer and the UNHLU agree to the extra overload.

Article 13
PERFORMANCE REVIEW AND PROMOTION

- 13.1 Statement of Purpose - The consistent improvement of employees, especially as it applies to teaching and mentoring, is crucial to the educational mission of the University. The performance review should provide candid, respectful, and objective feedback as part of a reflective developmental process. Lecturer Faculty will be reviewed on the full range of their workload, as outlined in Article 12: Workload Activities of Lecturer Faculty.
- 13.2 Reporting - Each year, each Lecturer Faculty member will be responsible for submitting a faculty activities report (FAR) as required by college rules, or absent college-level guidance, to the chair of their department, by May 15. This will include all teaching, professional, service, and administrative activities completed during that prior academic year. Lecturers may exercise discretion in providing supporting documentation. An important part of this report is a self-assessment narrative of the past year and plans for the upcoming year.
- 13.3 Lecturer Faculty shall be responsible for maintaining copies of teaching evaluations and course syllabi that are not stored electronically. When requested, course syllabi should be submitted to the Department Chair each year. Lecturer Faculty are responsible for the assembly and submission of their own materials for consideration of promotion to Senior and Principal Lecturer.
- 13.4 Regular Reviews - During the Lecturer's appointment, the college dean or his/her designee shall provide Lecturer Faculty with a written performance review annually by June 15. This review shall convey an assessment of overall performance, including any necessity for improvement and growth as well as any areas of excellence. The Dean or Dean's designee will also convey, where and when appropriate, the resources and mechanisms to foster professional development and improvement. The Dean's review will be informed by a separate written evaluation prepared at the department/program level by the Lecturer Faculty member's Chair or other designee selected by the Dean

- 13.4.1 The written evaluation may be conducted by the Chair/program coordinator or other designee selected by the Dean. If the evaluator is a designee, they shall provide the written evaluation to the chair and the chair shall provide to the dean.
- 13.4.2 Prior to submitting the written evaluation, the evaluator shall hold a meeting with the Lecturer, unless this meeting is waived by the Lecturer⁵. The purpose of this meeting is to 1) provide candid, respectful feedback, 2) to enhance professional development of the faculty member, and 3) to document the outcome of the evaluation.
- 13.4.3 Following the evaluation meeting, the evaluator and Lecturer shall sign and date the written review. Should the Lecturer disagree with the content of the written review, they may submit a rebuttal letter. The rebuttal letter shall be attached with the evaluation that is submitted to the college Dean and the rebuttal will be included in the Lecturer's personnel file.
- 13.4.4 The departmental annual evaluation and the Dean's annual review letter shall be based the following:
- 13.4.4.1 Teaching activities: these will be evaluated on the basis of classroom observation, information provided in the FAR, student course evaluations, and other relevant assigned teaching activities.

- 13.4.4.1.1 Observations: Once per appointment period, each Lecturer faculty member will have an announced classroom observation of their teaching. This observation may be conducted by the chair/program coordinator or dean's designee, provided the observer is of equal or higher rank.

Where possible and consistent with the goals of the college, faculty at the rank of Lecturer may be observed by Senior or Principal Lecturers, Associate Professors, or Professors. Senior Lecturers may be observed by Senior or Principal Lecturers, Associate Professors, or Professors. Principal Lecturers may be observed by Principal Lecturers or Professors.

Where there is not a designee in the same department/program, the Dean will identify an evaluator.

No later than seven days before the classroom session to be observed, the observer and the Lecturer Faculty member will meet to discuss the plan for the class, the learning objectives for the session, and the class content. Specific observation assessment criteria will be agreed upon by the college, with full participation of Lecturer Faculty, and consistent with departmental norms.

⁵ If the meeting is waived by the Lecturer they should still ensure they sign the written evaluation as described in Art 13.4.3

Within two weeks of the observation date, the assessment of teaching will be provided in writing to the Lecturer Faculty member. The Lecturer shall sign the assessment to acknowledge receipt. The assessment will be included in the Lecturer Faculty member's personnel file. The faculty member retains the right to rebut the contents of the observation.

13.4.4.1.2 Peer observation: The Lecturer Faculty member may choose to have an announced classroom observation, by physical or virtual means, by a peer evaluator once per appointment period. The peer evaluator should be from a closely related discipline. The peer evaluator will be jointly chosen by the Department Chair or Program Coordinator and the Lecturer Faculty member. If the two are unable to agree upon an evaluator, the Dean or Associate Dean shall make a determination. The evaluator will provide a written assessment of the Lecturer Faculty's teaching to him/her and to the Department Chair or Program Coordinator. The assessment will be included in his/her Personnel File within two weeks of the assessment.

Faculty at the rank of Lecturer may be evaluated by Senior or Principal Lecturers, and Associate Professors or Professors. Senior Lecturers may be evaluated by Senior or Principal Lecturers, and Associate Professors or Professors. Principal Lecturers may be evaluated by Principal Lecturers, Associate Professors, or Professors.

13.4.4.1.2 Faculty Activities Report (as described in 13.2).

13.4.4.1.3 Student Course Evaluations: All Lecturer Faculty shall be evaluated in each section of each course. Colleges and departments should be clear about the role of student evaluations in the overall assessment of Lecturer Faculty teaching.

13.4.4.2 Service Activities (see Article 12: Workload Activities) completed during the review period will be evaluated based on the designated reviewer's assessment of the quality of execution of the assigned duties including information in the FAR.

13.4.5 Lecturers who have previously been notified of non-reappointment will not be reviewed at the department or college unless they request a review. The request should be to the Chair and Dean no later than six weeks before the end of the Lecturer's final semester.

13.5 Promotion Reviews

13.5.1 Promotion Committees

13.5.1.1 Promotion from Lecturer to Senior Lecturer will follow the college-specific Lecturer Faculty promotion policy and process documents through the level of the Dean. The final promotion decision will be made by the Dean in consideration of the materials provided by the faculty member, the recommendation of the department committee, and chair and/or program director. The promotion committee shall be assembled by the Department Chair, subject to the Dean's approval. The committee will be comprised of no fewer than three members: at least one Lecturer of higher rank, and at least one faculty member at the Associate or Full Professor rank in that department or program. Department Chairs (or program coordinators) may serve on committees. Efforts shall be made to include committee members with similar disciplinary background. If the department has no Senior or Principal Lecturers, or if no suitable other faculty in the department are available, committee members will be selected by the Dean from a related department.

13.5.1.2 Promotion from Senior Lecturer to Principal Lecturer will follow the college-specific Lecturer Faculty promotion policy and process documents through the level of the Dean. The final promotion decision will be made by the Dean in consideration of the materials provided by the faculty member, the recommendation of the department committee, and chair and/or program director. The promotion committee shall be assembled by the Department Chair, subject to the Dean's approval. The committee will be comprised of no fewer than three members: at least one Principal Lecturer, and at least one faculty member at the Full Professor rank in that department or program. Department Chairs (or program coordinators) may serve on committees. Efforts shall be made to include committee members with similar disciplinary background. If the department has no Principal Lecturers, or if no suitable other faculty in the department are available, committee members will be selected by the Dean from a related department

13.5.1.3 No member of the Promotion Committee may have a relationship with the candidate that might constitute a conflict of interest in objectively and fairly evaluating the candidate for promotion. In such cases where the requirements of 13.5.1.1 and 13.5.1.2 cannot be fulfilled, the Dean shall select an appropriate alternate committee member.

13.5.2 Promotion Timeline

The Lecturer Faculty member may initiate the process for promotion to Senior Lecturer in the fifth or subsequent year of continuous or cumulative employment at the rank of Lecturer. Senior Lecturer faculty may initiate the process for promotion to Principal Lecturer in the fifth or subsequent year of continuous or cumulative employment at the rank of Senior Lecturer.

13.5.2.1 For those Lecturer Faculty with prior teaching and/or other relevant professional experience, a different time frame for promotion may be negotiated at the time of hiring.

13.5.3 Promotion Criteria and Process

Each college will make public its criteria, processes, and process timeline for granting promotion to the ranks of Senior Lecturer and Principal Lecturer, consistent with overarching University guidelines and in accordance with 13.5.1.

13.5.4 Promotion Process Timeline

13.5.4.1 A Lecturer Faculty member who wishes to stand for promotion will indicate his or her intention in writing to the Dean and Department Chair and for submitting his or her dossier by the relevant deadlines set by the College. College or department specific timelines should be followed but in no case should the dates be later than outlined below:

13.5.4.2 The Promotion Committee will submit its recommendation to the Department Chair by February 1 of the year in which the case is heard.

13.5.4.3 The Department Chair, having taken an independent and objective evaluation, will forward the committee recommendation and their own recommendation to the Dean by February 15.

13.5.4.4 The Dean, having taken an independent and objective evaluation, will inform the candidate and the Provost of his/her decision by March 15.

13.5.5 The salary increase associated with any promotion will become effective at the beginning of the following fall semester.

13.5.6 Lecturer faculty promoted in the middle of an appointment period will serve the remainder of their current appointment at the promoted rank. No new appointment term shall be awarded on the basis of promotion. Subsequent reappointments, if any, shall be at the promoted level and for terms as otherwise proscribed by this contract.

13.5.7 Any Lecturer Faculty member has the right to file a grievance in accordance with the Grievance Article if he/she is not promoted and can prove that the processes were not properly followed or that the college's approved criteria were applied in an arbitrary or capricious manner.

13.5.8 It is acknowledged that a Lecturer Faculty member who stands for promotion and is not promoted is not required to leave his or her position as a result. Subsequent applications for promotion require the preparation of a new dossier, as well as the solicitation of new/updated recommendation letters. Any subsequent application shall be judged on a de novo review the overall merits of the case.

13.6 Not later than September 15, 2020, the University-Level Guidance for Lecturer Evaluation and Promotion and all college-level Promotion Policies must be updated to reflect changes to and be consistent with this CBA.

Article 14

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

14.1 Preamble

- 14.1.1 In agreeing to this Article, it is the intent of the parties to encourage and facilitate, in an expeditious manner, the resolution of an alleged violation of this Agreement or any policy incorporated by reference into this Agreement and to attempt to do so at the earliest stages of this Procedure. To this end, the UNHLU Contract Administrator/Grievance Officer will work with the Grievant, UNH Contract Administrator, and others to conduct all steps of the process in a timely manner.
- 14.1.2 The parties further agree that no Lecturer Faculty shall be subject to reprisal for using the Grievance Procedure or for participating in the resolution of a grievance.
- 14.1.3 Grievances shall proceed when a violation of this Agreement or any policy incorporated by reference into this Agreement is suspected to have been committed by a member or members of the Administration or their agents.
- 14.1.4 Lecturer Faculty or UNHLU may neither file nor attempt to pursue a grievance under this Article if a request for relief has been filed under any other process or in any other forum.

14.2 Definition

- 14.2.1 A grievance is defined as a written complaint alleging a misinterpretation, misapplication, or violation of a provision(s) of this Agreement or any policy incorporated by reference into this Agreement. A grievance may be initiated by a member or a group of members of the bargaining unit or by the UNHLU.
- 14.2.2 A grievance is considered to be formally filed when it is submitted to Step One of this procedure.

14.3 Informal Consultations

- 14.3.1 It is expected that a Lecturer Faculty member or members will discuss their concern(s) with the person(s) committing the alleged violation and with any other appropriate parties including the member's Department Chairperson prior to Step One.

- 14.3.2 The discussions between the parties at this step should be open, informal, and directed toward developing a mutually acceptable solution of the grievance.
- 14.3.3 Any problem resolution reached at this stage of the procedure will be non- precedent-setting and may not be cited by either party in arbitration as the basis for the resolution of any problem or grievance which may arise thereafter.
- 14.3.4 Where the grievance is brought by the chapter, informal consultations shall be between the University president or designee and the UNHLU president or designee. Chapter grievances shall be identified as such by the UNHLU.

14.4 Step One: Initial Meeting⁶

- 14.4.1 If the informal consultations have failed to achieve a settlement of the alleged violation, the UNHLU, on behalf of the Grievant, shall submit a formal written grievance against the Administration (which states the basis of the grievance, the specific provision of this Agreement or any policy incorporated by reference into this Agreement alleged to have been violated, and the remedy sought, along with any documents supporting the complaint) to the UNH Contract Administrator.
- 14.4.2 The request for the Step One meeting must be made in writing, by the UNHLU, and should be made as promptly as possible, but in no case shall it be made more than ninety (90) calendar days after the Grievant has become aware of the alleged violation(s) being contested. The Administration will have twenty-one (21) calendar days to schedule and complete the Step One meeting.
- 14.4.3 The Step One meeting will include the Grievants, including a representative of the UNHLU, and members of the administration who have the authority to resolve the problem. Legal Counsel for either or both parties may attend the Step One meeting. The goal of the meeting will be to review the grievance and attempt to fashion a mutually acceptable resolution. The meetings shall be non- adversarial and each party will extend serious consideration to the views of the other parties. All parties will make available to the others all relevant documents and other evidence bearing upon the grievance, and any person having knowledge of the circumstances surrounding the grievance will be expected to share his or her information with the group.
- 14.4.4 The Administration will have twenty-one (21) calendar days from the Step One meeting to resolve the grievance presented and respond in writing to the Grievant and the UNHLU. If these deadlines are not met, the grievance shall be deemed unresolved and the UNHLU may proceed to Step Two.
- 14.4.5 If the parties are able to reach a consensus for the resolution of the grievance, the terms of that resolution, including any remedy agreed upon, will be implemented promptly and in good faith by all parties.

⁶ When the University determines the same party would hear the grievance during the Informal Consultation and Step One, the University may elect to have the grievance start at Step One and shall provide notice to UNHLU of that intent.

14.5 Step Two: Binding Arbitration

14.5.1 If after the Step One efforts have been exhausted, but no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days after receipt by the UNHLU of the written response toward resolution, the grievance remains unresolved to the satisfaction of the UNHLU, the UNHLU may proceed to binding arbitration to resolve the grievance. The UNHLU will share the cost of the Arbitrator and related transcription services. The Arbitrator will be selected according to the procedures described below.

14.5.1.1 Selection of the Arbitrator: At such time as a grievance goes to Step Two, the University and the UNHLU will mutually agree to an arbitrator. If one cannot be selected by mutual agreement, the arbitrator will be appointed by the arbitrator selection process of the New Hampshire Public Employee Labor Relations Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this article shall give the PELRB jurisdiction to hear any appeal of an arbitrator's award regarding appeals governed by RSA 542.

14.5.2 The parties will cooperate fully with the Arbitrator in making available the evidence he or she requires to effect a resolution of the grievance.

14.5.3 Unless there is mutual agreement by all parties to modify the scope of the hearing, the issue to be addressed by the Arbitrator shall be restricted to the alleged violation which was the subject of Step One of the Grievance Procedure. In the event that the Arbitrator must make an award, the decision of the Arbitrator will be restricted to whether or not there has occurred a violation of the Agreement or any policy incorporated by reference into this Agreement. If a violation is found, the Arbitrator shall specify the remedy in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or any policy incorporated by reference into this Agreement. The Arbitrator shall have the authority to decide the relevance of documentary evidence and/or testimony.

14.5.4 A decision of the Arbitrator on any issue properly before him or her shall be final and binding upon the University, the University System, the UNHLU, and all affected Lecturer Faculty. The Arbitrator's decision-making authority shall be limited to determining whether the provision(s) of this Agreement or any policy incorporated by reference into this Agreement have been violated, misinterpreted, or misapplied, and if so to provide a remedy that provides the grievant with the pay, benefits, and rights to which they were entitled under the Agreement or any policy incorporated by reference into this Agreement. The Arbitrator shall not have the authority to add to, amend, modify, nullify, or ignore in any way the provision(s) of this Agreement and shall not make an award which would, in effect, grant the UNHLU or the Lecturer Faculty any right or benefit which was not achieved through the negotiation process.

14.5.5 Any appeal of the Arbitrator's decision will conform with RSA 542 and any successor legislation.

14.6 General Provisions

14.6.1 Failure by the Grievant at any step of this procedure to appeal the grievance to the next step of the procedure within the time limits specified shall be considered acceptance by the Grievant of the decision rendered at the preceding step.

- 14.6.2 A failure to reach a resolution within the time limits specified shall permit the Grievant to move to the next step of the procedure. If the Step One meeting does not take place within the time limits prescribed or within an extension of time mutually agreed upon; and if the failure to convene the meeting within such time limits is demonstrably the result of negligence on the part of the administration; and if the grievance is appealed to Step Two, then the administration will pay the entire cost of the arbitration which is normally shared equally by the parties. Likewise if the failure to convene the meeting within such time limits is demonstrably the result of negligence on the part of the Grievant or the UNHLU; and if the grievance is appealed to Step Two, then the UNHLU will pay the entire cost of the arbitration. Any dispute over the identity of the party for the failure to convene the meeting in a timely fashion will be resolved by the Arbitrator.
- 14.6.3 The time limits prescribed in this article may be extended by mutual agreement of the administration and the UNHLU.
- 14.6.4 A Grievant may withdraw his or her grievance at any point in this procedure.
- 14.6.5 If the Grievant is unable to pursue the grievance because of circumstances beyond his/her control, the UNHLU may become the Grievant at any stage in the procedure.
- 14.6.6 The arbitration hearing shall be conducted by the rules of the American Arbitration Association.
- 14.6.7 The costs of arbitration shall be shared equally by the University and the UNHLU.
- 14.6.8 If mutually agreed upon, the administration will make a taped, stenographic, or other type of verbatim record of the arbitration proceedings and will provide a copy of such record to the UNHLU. The cost of providing this record will be shared equally by the University and the UNHLU.

Article 15

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

15.1 Non-Reappointment

15.1.1 Appointments of Lecturer Faculty expire at the stated end of the appointment. Notice of non-reappointment shall be given to Lecturer Faculty based on the Lecturer's length of service at the end of the appointment year:

- Second year of initial appointment by March 1
- Third year and thereafter by September 30th

15.1.2 Late notice shall entitle the non-reappointed Lecturer Faculty member to reappointment for a semester or compensation in lieu thereof, at the University's discretion.

15.1.3 The University shall provide the basis for the non-reappointment in writing to the Lecturer Faculty member and the UNHLU. Such reasoning shall not be arbitrary or capricious.

15.2 Retrenchment Mid-Appointment

15.2.1 Retrenchment is the termination of a Lecturer's employment prior to the end of their appointment term as the result of institutional financial exigency, program elimination, or demonstrable non-intermittent curricular changes. Where any Lecturer Faculty member would be terminated prior to the end of their appointment term, the following shall be applied:

15.2.2 Prior to taking action, the administration shall notify the UNHLU of the University's intention to effect retrenchment and identify the departments/programs to be or likely to be impacted. Such notice shall occur no later than six month prior to any retrenchment taking effect. The parties will meet and consult within 15 business days of notice to discuss the need for retrenchment and identify potentially impacted Lecturer Faculty.

15.2.3 Within 60 days of the meeting described in 15.2.2, a staffing plan will be developed by the Provost and/or relevant Dean(s) in coordination with affected Department Chair(s) to address such personnel actions. Staffing plans shall be shared with UNHLU. Staffing plans may include reductions in FTE (e.g. reduced workload and reduced salary), temporary or permanent reassignments within the institution, or other options that may obviate or lessen the need for Lecturer Faculty terminations, which could include teaching J-term or summer classes in-load or other work assignments identified by the administration.

15.2.3.1 UNH will notice UNHLU of the opportunity to solicit from the membership voluntary workload reduction or separations from faculty in the identified departments/programs to reduce the need for retrenchment. Voluntary separations may be resignations or retirements.

15.2.3.2 UNHLU members who elect to voluntarily separate, reduced FTE or otherwise modify their position as a result of UNHLU efforts during this process are not entitled to severance.

15.2.3 Consistent with the educational mission of the department, program, sub-field, or discipline affected, decisions about termination mid-appointment shall first take into account performance and ability to meet post-retrenchment teaching needs of the department or program. If two or more Lecturer Faculty members are assessed as equal on those criteria by the Dean, terminations shall take place among Lecturer Faculty in inverse order of rank and within rank inverse order of length of service from date of original appointment. The original appointment shall mean the date of first appointment to University service as Lecturer Faculty.

15.2.4 The Administration will notify employees subject to retrenchment by January 15th for termination as of the final day of the Academic Year or by August 31st for termination as of the final day of the Fall semester.

15.2.5 Severance

Lecturer Faculty who are terminated as a result of retrenchment are entitled to severance from the University, payable upon the last day of employment. Severance shall be $5000 plus a calculated amount based on years of service as a Lecturer Faculty member using the following:

- a. Those with 3-5 years of service as a Lecturer Faculty member: 4 weeks
- b. Those with greater than 5 years of service as a Lecturer Faculty member: 4 weeks + 1 week for each year of service greater than 5 years.
- c. No discontinued Lecturer Faculty may receive an amount in excess of 13 weeks of pay as severance, inclusive of the $5,000.
- d. A week of pay is equal to 1/39 of a Lecturer Faculty member's salary for the current academic year.

15.3 Termination or Suspension Without Pay for Just Cause

15.3.1 Lecturer Faculty shall not be subject to dismissal or suspension without pay except for just cause. A dismissal refers to the termination of a Lecturer during the term of an appointment for reasons other than Retrenchment.

15.4 Resignation and Retirement

15.4.1 A Lecturer wishing to resign should submit a letter of resignation to the University one hundred and twenty (120) days in advance through appropriate administrative channels, normally beginning with the department Chairperson or the equivalent. When considering the interruption or termination of service, the Lecturer should recognize the effect of resignation upon the program of the institution and should give due notice of intentions.

15.4.2 It is expected that the timing of a resignation will coincide with the end of the academic year. The University recognizes that there are circumstances in which a change of employment will enhance a professional career and it will not hinder efforts to take advantage of such circumstances. Lecturers should keep the University informed of the progress of arrangements for other employment and submit a formal resignation as early as possible in order to ensure an orderly transition.

15.4.3 Lecturers shall provide a minimum of one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days notice to the UNH Office of Human Resources in order to indicate an intent to retire from the University. The Lecturer will receive counseling regarding various benefit programs associated with applicable retirement programs sponsored by the University to insure a smooth transition from active employment to retirement status during the one hundred and twenty (120) days.

Article 16

Those who chose ARC and those hired and enrolled between 1994 and June 30, 2011 receive an additional 1% USNH contribution to their retirement plans, except at the Initial Contribution Level. One current member of the bargaining unit elected MCP before access to that plan was terminated and remains grandfathered.

The costs for food and/or accommodations are not covered. See USY V.A.4.7.⁸

The Lecturer Faculty member's salary base will be pro-rated based on the percent time of employment. Participating Lecturer Faculty will be eligible to continue their existing USNH group medical and dental coverage at the same cost sharing arrangement as outlined in 18.2 and USY A.4.3. Life insurance, disability insurance, and retirement contributions are based on the reduced appointment salary. Tuition benefits for employees will be the same as outlined in 18.6. Faculty member will pay the same percentage as active employees for the dependent coverage.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

- 19.1 Preamble. The intent of this article is to describe Lecturer Faculty leave of absence policies that differ from USNH benefits described at <http://www.usnh.edu/olpm/> as of July 1, 2019 or as subsequently amended to comply with changes in federal or state law. The latter apply except when they differ from the policies outlined in this Agreement. If the leave is for a “serious health condition” as defined under the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), or any other FMLA eligible reason, USNH policy USY V.C. 19 applies. FMLA runs concurrent with relevant leaves, including Family Leave (see 19.3), Workers’ Compensation (see 19.4), and these UTime components: Sick Time, Parental Leave and Short-Term Disability.
- 19.2 UTime benefits provide paid Sick Time, Short-Term Disability, Parental Leave, Bereavement Leave, and Long Term Disability coverage.
- 19.2.1 Sick Time is designed to provide salary continuation for absences due to personal medical needs or Family Leave as described below in 19.3. Lecturer Faculty accrue sick time during their appointment period at a rate of one and one quarter (1.25) days per month (pro-rated when working less than 1.0 FTE). The maximum accumulation of sick time is 60 (working) days. There is no payout of unused sick time at end of employment.
- 19.2.2 Short-Term Disability (STD): This benefit provides Lecturer Faculty with salary continuation for certified total disability due to a non-occupational accident or illness for up to 26 weeks.
- 19.2.2.1.1 Eligibility. Lecturer Faculty must be employed in their Lecturer Faculty position for a minimum of two months (60 consecutive calendar days) to be eligible.
- 19.2.2.1.2 Elimination period. Benefits begin the first day of total disability following an accident or on the eighth calendar day of total disability due to illness (including medical maternity).
- 19.2.2.1.3 Salary continuation for absence due to disability. After completion of the elimination period STD benefits are at 100% of budgeted salary through week eight (8) of absence due to disability and 60% of budgeted salary for weeks nine (9) through twenty-six (26) (calendar day 182).
- 19.2.2.1.4 Supplementing STD with Sick Time. Lecturer Faculty may use accrued Sick Time for the elimination period or to supplement STD at the 60% of salary level to bring pay replacement to no more than 100% of budgeted salary.
- 19.2.3 Parental Leave for Birth or Adoption/Placement of a Child. Each Lecturer Faculty member who becomes a parent through birth or adoption is eligible for a maximum of four (4) weeks of paid parental leave for the birth or placement of the child. Parental leave must be used consecutively within twelve (12) weeks from the birth or placement. (See Art 19.3 for additional leaves related to birth/placement of a child)

- 19.2.3.1 The Lecturer Faculty member shall inform his/her Department Chair and the Office of Human Resources in writing, as early as possible, of the intent to use parental leave and identify the approximate date that the leave is expected to commence. If the leave is to commence mid-term, upon departure the faculty member must supply the Chair with access to all course materials (including grades and submitted but ungraded work) that will be shared with the faculty member who takes over the course.
- 19.2.3.2 Lecturer Faculty are not required to fulfill any work assignments while on parental leave, including any work in the areas of teaching or service. The year in which parental leave is taken will be deducted for accruals in Pedagogical Development Leave eligibility.
- 19.2.3.3 For up to one year following the conclusion of a parental leave, Lecturer Faculty members may request in writing permission from the Dean to shift the teaching of one or more of their assigned courses for the year to a subsequent semester, J-Term or summer without additional pay. The Dean's approval will be contingent upon curricular need.
- 19.2.3.4 Utilization of paid parental leave does not restrict the availability of the Modified-Duties Assignments (see 19.7).
- 19.2.4 Bereavement Leave. Lecturer Faculty are entitled to five days of bereavement leave for the death of an immediate family member and one day for the death of other relatives. Immediate family members and other relatives are described in USNH policy USY.V.A.4.13.
- 19.2.5 Record Keeping. It is the responsibility of each Lecturer Faculty member and department to maintain accurate records that verify the usage and current accrual balances of UTime paid leave.
- 19.2.6 Long Term Disability (LTD). This insurance provides monthly disability income benefits to an approved Lecturer Faculty member (see USY.V.A.8.1.2) who is unable to work for more than twenty-six (26) weeks due to an illness or injury.
- 19.2.7 The maximum a Lecturer Faculty member's appointment will be held is twenty-six (26) weeks from the initial date of absence due to total disability. This is intended to align with the twenty-six (26) week waiting period for Long Term Disability (LTD) benefits. At the end of the twenty-six (26) week period, the Lecturer Faculty member may transition to LTD if they have applied and been approved. If LTD is not approved and the Lecturer Faculty member does not return to work, their appointment ends at the end of the twenty-six (26) week period.
- 19.2.8 When Lecturer Faculty members are absent from their duties and cannot fulfill their responsibilities Chairs should be made aware of the absence and that absence should be recorded by the faculty member. If a Lecturer Faculty member is absent due to illness or injury and unable to fulfill their responsibilities or their responsibilities are fulfilled on a temporary basis by virtual or other means for more than three (3) consecutive workdays, they must provide notice of this absence to their Chair. If the absence is for a “serious health condition” as defined under the Family and Medical Leave Act, failure to promptly notice no later than the fourth (4th) day of absence may result in the Lecturer Faculty member receiving less than the full benefits to which they would otherwise be entitled.

- 19.3 Family Leave. Lecturer Faculty may use up to a maximum of 10 days of accrued Sick Time per fiscal year for family leave during their appointment period. This leave may be used to replace salary for absence due to medical appointments, illness, or medical needs of an immediate family member; prenatal or post-natal care; for extended bereavement leave (19.2.4), and/or crime victim leave (see USY V.C.20.2). Family Leave may also be used for bonding with a new baby or adoptive/foster child within the first twelve (12) weeks from birth or placement. Those individuals considered immediate family include spouse, mother, father, stepparents, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son, daughter, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, stepchildren, sister, brother, stepbrother, stepsister, grandparents, grandchildren, and individuals living within the Lecturer Faculty member's household. (See Appendix A for a visual representation of available leaves.)
- 19.3.1 For the purpose of bonding with a newborn or newly adopted child, the Lecturer may utilize up to the maximum 10 days Family Leave even if they have exhausted or do not have available Sick Time. This leave must be taken consecutively with any other leaves associated with the birth or placement of a child.
- 19.4 Workers’ Compensation. The New Hampshire Workers' Compensation law, RSA 281-A, covers all Lecturer Faculty. It provides non-taxable payment for loss of earnings and payment of medical expenses due to injury, occupational disease, or death arising out of and in the course of employment. It is not considered compensation under IRS regulations. Lecturer Faculty who have accrued UTime Sick Time may supplement the workers' compensation benefit; however, the combination of paid leave plans and workers' compensation benefits shall not exceed the Lecturer Faculty member's budgeted salary.
- 19.5 Jury Duty/Witness & Military Leave. Lecturer Faculty will be granted Jury Duty / Witness or Military leave consistent with USNH policies.
- 19.6 Partial or Full Leaves Without Pay. A Lecturer Faculty member may request a full or partial leave without pay for medical or other personal/professional reasons. If the absence is for an FMLA-eligible reason, USNH policy USY.V.C.19 applies. Except when the absence is covered by the Family and Medical Leave Act, approval of the leave is at the discretion of the department and Dean. The maximum duration of leave is one (1) year. A partial leave temporarily reduces the Lecturer Faculty member’s percent-time service and pay for the leave period. During the leave of absence period the Lecturer Faculty member retains her/his position. Benefits continuation is defined under USY V.C.16.
- 19.7 Modified-Duties Assignments.
- 19.7.1 At the discretion of the Department Chair, with the approval of the Dean (in consultation with the Office of Human Resources) and attention to curricular needs, paid modified-duties workload assignments may be available for up to two semesters to Lecturer

Faculty dealing with qualifying events under the Family and Medical Leave Act. Lecturer Faculty granted this status remain fully employed at their current FTE and fully paid with normal health and retirement benefits. Modification of duties requires full-time work assignments that simply alter the percentage time assigned for teaching and service for a designated period of time.

- 19.7.2 Bargaining unit members must submit in writing to the Department Chair the basis of the request and a probable duration of the Lecturer Faculty member's requested modification. The Lecturer Faculty member shall provide to the Office of Human Resources written certification that meets FMLA certification requirements of the qualifying reason for the requested modification.
 - 19.7.3 For purposes of annual review, or merit pay allocation, bargaining unit members shall be evaluated on the performance of duties assigned.
 - 19.7.4 A Lecturer Faculty member returning from modified-duties assignment will be expected to return to their normal workload assignments and will meet with their Department Chair to discuss the particulars at least 60 days before returning from modified-duties assignments.
- 19.8 Benefits. Benefits deductions will continue to occur during any paid leave. For unpaid leave Lecturer Faculty must make benefit payment arrangements in advance with UNH Human Resources. Failure to pay benefit premiums while on unpaid leave will cause cancellation of benefits.
- 19.9 Leave Requests. For all types of leaves, it is the responsibility of Lecturer Faculty to submit the proper form(s)/documentation to the appropriate departmental and/or university officials to gain the approvals. The Lecturer Faculty member may not receive any or all benefit processes if they do not provide proper form(s)/documentation within the deadline parameters of the programs.

Lecturer Faculty wishing to apply shall submit the application form and supporting materials to the Dean, including a statement of departmental support (including a statement regarding plans for course and service coverage) and may solicit additional statements from other appropriate sources.

20.5.1 The Dean shall review all PDL applications, seeking advice from others as appropriate. The Dean shall forward all approved applications to the Office of the Provost with a statement of support.

20.5.2 Applicants shall be notified in writing by the Dean if their application is not forwarded to the Provost and the reasons therefor.

20.5.3 If a Lecturer would be denied based solely on inadequate coverage, the award shall be granted and the leave shall be deferred to the following academic year. This would not constitute a roll-forward.

20.7 A Lecturer's base salary and benefits shall not be decreased due to a PDL. Eligibility for salary increases and promotion are also continued. A Lecturer Faculty on leave shall not be required to participate in University activities.
